

STUDY ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The study team for the 2008–2012 Transportation Development Plan (TDP) for the Chatham Area Transit Authority (CAT) was led by the Urbitran Group, a full-service engineering, planning, and architectural firm based in New York City. Subcontractors to Urbitran included Abrams–Cherwony & Associates, Anne Roise, and Schaller Consulting.

Urbitran wishes to thank the Chatham Area Transit Authority (CAT) staff, the Chatham County–Savannah Metropolitan Planning Commission, the Savannah Economic Development Authority, Step Up (Savannah’s Poverty Reduction Initiative), and the many governmental, business, and community representatives who provided valuable input throughout the study process.
